Kateri was the first Native American to become canonized. She was the daughter of a Christian woman but was married to a Mohawk chief. She converted to the Faith, was abused for her choice, and fled to a Christian Native American settlement. Many Christian Native Americans frequent her grave.

ST. KATHARINE DREXEL

Against Racism

Memorial: Mar 3

Katharine Drexel was the daughter of wealthy parents. Her parents taught her and her siblings to use their wealth for the good of others. By the time of her death, she had established black Catholic schools in many states, mission centers, and the first colored college in the United States.

ST. KEVIN
Blackbirds/Ireland

Memorial: June 3

There are many legends about Saint Kevin, due to the fact that the details of his life are relatively unknown. He founded a monastery at Glendalough and became a hermit after its success. Saint Kevin is often depicted with animals because many tales show his closeness to them.

ST. KILIAN

Whitewashers/Rheumatism

Memorial: July 8

Saint Kilian was of Irish nobility. He converted a local Bavarian ruler and his subjects to the Faith. After explaining to the ruler that his marriage to his brother's widow was invalid to the Church, he was martyred. There are conflicting stories as to who assassinated Our Saint, some tales point to the wife, others to the Duke.
